Enjoyable fine weather - such a change for Lancs County - it was a reasonable entry for this our only charity trial of the year.

The guys intentionally made it easy so that everybody got a decent chance of a ride with few marks lost. Even so it's not easy to go clean so congratulations to Andy Holker who did. Thanks to Mark Hewitt for the generous use of this land, to those who picked up a observers board for a while and special thanks to Robert Taylor, Ian Quinn and Phil Haygarth who set it all out. Our next trial is at Low Gill, on Sunday, February 23 for the first round of the Sunday Series.
