Well, it's not possible to get a better evening for a trial than the brilliant and warm sun that prevailed at Drunkenbridge, and 40 riders for the time of year is not bad so thanks for turning up and supporting Lancs County. Our appreciations go to Tommy Woodhouse, the landowner for the generous use of his land and to all the observers - it's great to have every section properly observed for most of the evening.

The next evening trial is on Wednesday, August 13 at Wrayton Hall Farm, Wrayton which is midway between Lancaster and Kirkby Lonsdale. This is the popular venue where our Good Friday trial was held. Start time will be 6pm or thereabouts with catering on hand of course from Harlequin. We also have our national Angela Redford Trial on Saturday, August 2 for which entries are still available for those who qualify. The classes are Pre 75 British Bikes, Twinshocks, Air-cooled Monoshocks and Veterans on modern bikes. It is a great trial with sensible sections and it is at Brookhouse Brickworks. As always, Mike Rapley is your contact on 07788 161929.
