Well done to Matthew Alpe, winning at home on his dad's land where he learnt his skill. Matthew has been dead keen since he first started coming to trials with Lancs County, and it appears he has been well taught on our trials. So thanks indeed to the Alpe family for their generosity in allowing us to use their great piece of land, and thanks to all the riders who turned out for this Sunday Series trial on a Good Friday. We couldn't have done it without you.

We also can't do it without the observers' corps, so our appreciations go to Alison, Phil Scott's partner, Ian Speakman, Beth Smith, Bill Beveridge, Harold Isherwood, Dave Berry, Dave Taylor, Barry Hiley, Ann Titley who picked up the board when her bike gave up the ghost after two sections and to Anna Rapley.

As always, the scores have been calculated from the score sheets which have been carefully scrutinised, but if you think we may have mis-read your score, a call to Mike Rapley on 07788 161929 can get it checked out.

Our next trial is on WEDNESDAY evening, May 16 at Bainsbeck Farm, Arkholme with a 6pm start time. We do take entries up until about 6.30, but it does mean you have to rush round to get done before it's dark.

As mentioned previously, we have a new website under production which should go live at the very end of April or perhaps early May. There could be a few days when nothing is available. The site address remains the same. Thanks for making it a great day. Fuss free trialing from Lancs County.
