Our sincere thanks go to the landowners, James Alpe and his family as well as to the full compliment of observers who, for a change, were able to enjoy unbroken sunshine. Well done to everybody who finished the trial, as we know that it is very physical chewing your way up the gully, and this year it didn't seem to get any easier as the day progressed. As you will see, there are some very high scores from newcomers/returnees to the sport, so well done to them for persevering and finishing the trial. The scores don't matter, you are bound to improve and there's an immense amount of satisfaction in finishing the trial.

The club's next event is the first of our very popular Wednesday evening trials, sponsored this year by Nigel Birkett's Ossa Moto UK company. It will be on May 18 at Bainsbeck Farm, Arkholme, a popular and fairly easy venue that provides good sections for a Wednesday night. As always there will be a dead easy route as well as the normal clubman course and it's open to ALL abilities.

Chris Kirkbride (who with Robert Taylor marked out today's trial) has his 2009 125cc Gas Gas for sale, ridden by an over 40 rider for £2150 on 01524 383224, and if you are looking for a twinshock, Mike Rapley has a 200 Fantic for sale which is up and running pretty well now and he's looking to sell it for £1000, ring him on 07788 161929.
